SUPERVISORS TO DECIDE TODAY ABOUT ELECTION

In View Of Ruling From Office Of Attorney General Special Call Will Probably Be Made Today

Acording to advices received at Redwood City, Wednesday of this week, it will be compulsory for the Board of Supervisors to call a special election to fill six county offices made elective by the charter amendments, voted by the electorate at an election last summer.

The ruling, given by Robert Harrison, a deputy in the office of the State attorney general, held that the offices must be filled by special election as required by the charter amendments ratified March 9 by the State Legislature.

Harrison held that the officials thus elected must qualify for the ballot under section 1188 of the political code, which will require 2113 signatures on each nominating petition. He held further that the officers elected at the special election will hold office only until their successors are named at the regular elections in August and November.

The ruling was given to District Attorney Gilbert D. Ferrell by telephone Tuesday evening.

It now appears obvious that the election will be called by the supervisors when they convene in adjourned session at 10 a. m. today, Friday. Nominating petition forms are now being prepared in Ferrell's office, it was learned.

Opposition to the special election has already been voiced by the La-Fayette Club of San Mateo County

LARGE NUMBER SEE EXHIBIT AT CITY AUDITORIUM

Daly City Recreational Project Puts On Interesting And Colorful Show

They came, they saw and were conquered. Before the doors were opened or the display properly set Daly City en masse flocked into the City Auditorium and gasped at the spectacle presented by the display prepared by the Daly City WPA Recreation Project.

Old men and daughters; young men and sweethearts; mothers and babies; fathers and sons; more than a thousand of them came to view the colorful exhibit of art, needle, and woodcraft.

Early in the day teachers ushered their classes into the hall and the boys and girls began to dream of making things "their very own-selves."

Among the distinguished visitors were Mayor Selmi and members of the City Council, Judge Clay, Area Supervisor Cecil George, Arthur M. Ryan, supervisor of San Mateo County Projects, and Mr. Rector, Pacific Coast manager of the Dennison Manufacturing Co., through whose courtesy a display of paper craft was exhibited.

The display of quilts presented by Mrs. Lela Campbell evoked enthusiastic praise of all those viewing this feature of the exhibition.

The display of paper craft and crepe paper costumes, with the many

HOLDS HIS OWN WITH LAMB STEW

During General John J. Pershing's recent convalescence he issued orders for a special lamb stew for lunch. He directed that it be prepared by the chef of the resort hotel, in Tucson, where he was staying when he became ill several weeks ago. The hotel chef, the general explained, made stew the way he liked it.

For breakfast the same day he had cereal with egg white, half a grapefruit, orange juice and milk. Between meals he was allowed to indulge in toast and cream cheese.

For dinner, at night, he had a cream soup, cereal with egg white, Jelly custard and hot milk.

WATCH OTHERS AT APPROACH

One good way to avoid traffic trouble, on the open road or in the city, is to keep an eye on the fellow driving toward you. Watch him closely. If he keeps turning his head from side to side, give him plenty of room. These traffic twisters usually can be spotted a hundred yards away. They are apt to disregard the center line entirely, so give them a wide berth. Sometimes you can snap these dizzy drivers out of their lethargy by a toot of the horn. It is worth a try anyway.

A lot of unexplained accidents are probably due to the bad habit of turning the head, instead of watching the road. Help prevent accidents by keeping your mind on your driving and your eyes on the road, the National Safety Council advises. — San Mateo County Traffic Safety Commission.

COUNTY BOARD PROTESTS FAIR TAKING OF SOIL

Removal Of Loam In Large Quantities Depreciates Agricultural Area Near Sharp Park

Removal of loam and trees from picturesque San Mateo County to grace the mud flats on which the 1939 World's Fair is being constructed today drew vigorous protests from San Mateo County officials.

The board of Supervisors heard a protest from the Sharp Park Improvement Club against wholesale removal of loam from the coastside area for use on the fair site.

County Engineer U. S. Marshall revealed that not only soil but trees are being removed from the county to the fair site.

"I know of one contract for 175,000 cubic yards of top soil to be taken from San Mateo County for this purpose," Marshall announced. "Some of the soil is taken from the Coast area, particularly in the Edgemar district, and more is to be taken from the Colma Creek drainage area.

Drainage sectors in the Colma Creek basin have cost $360,000, and the problem isn't solved yet," Marshall declared.

"Removal of more top soil will aggravate the erosion problem there."

He suggested in investigation and an official protest to the exposition company, with the suggestion that the loam required for the exposition be taken from the Sacramento River delta, source of soil for the 1915 exposition.

The members of the board considered the removal of soil from this county a serious menace and ordered action taken as suggested.

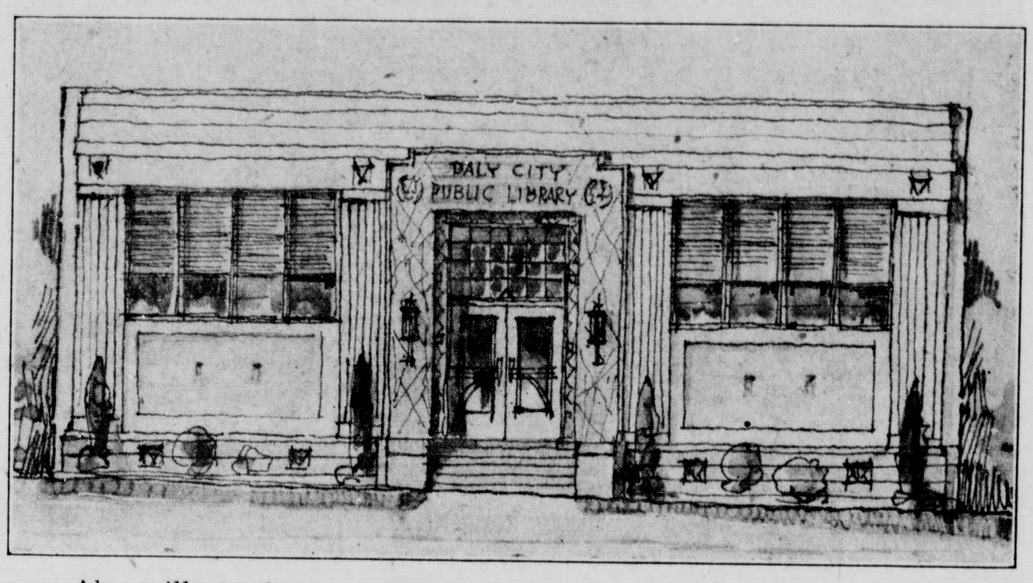
HOW NEW LIBRARY ADDITION WILL LOOK



Above illustration is a correct view of the new addition to the Daly City Library. Another step in the progress of our community was evidenced by beginning of work on this improvement during the present week.

FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT YOUR CITY

(By MAYOR SELMI)

It is my pleasure to announce that ground was broken this week and construction work started on a new library for Daly City. More space and improved library facilities have for some time been recognized by incumbent councilmen and other forward looking citizens as an urgent community need.

With careful planning and economical administration of city finances it was possible to list a new library on the PROGRAM FOR PROGRESS proposed by members of the city council and to start construction work now.

Local citizens watch with pride the activity on the library site, on Mission street, and comment that the PROGRAM FOR PROGRESS is actually a working plan for the rapid, steady and co-ordinated growth and improvement of Daly City.

Such an excellent and effective plan should be continued.

OLD LIBRARY

The present Daly City library, which is located at 6315 Mission street, was erected in 1920. Two lots, constituting the site, were donated by John D. Daly and another public spirited citizen. Building costs were also donated by these two philanthropists. Since the erection of the one story single room structure (25x25 feet) Daly City has doubled its population. The borrowers of library books have more than doubled in number.

At present 5000 volumes of fiction and reference, a collection of 5000 visual education pictures and hundreds of pamphlets and periodicals are crowded into library space which was originally meant for half that number.

Mrs. J. O'Rourke, chief libarian, and her assistant, Miss Mary Lewis, have been unable to make display of valuable material which comes into their hands because of shortage of space.

NEW LIBRARY

The new building, to be located directly in front of the present structure, will be 32x52 feet in size and adequately equipped with up to date facilities. The doors of its modernistic stucco front are scheduled to swing open for service early this summer. The present library building will be connected to the new building and arranged as an attractive children's department.

Everyone will be proud of the new library. Local citizens hold a great deal of respect and are equally proud of the PROGRAM FOR PROGRESS which is making its construction possible.

I assure you that this program will continue in the event that Selmi, Sundermann and Twesten are returned to office in the coming city election.

In my article appearing in last week's Daly City Record I stated that the city's WPA Recreation Project was adopted by a majority vote of the Board of Councilmen. This brought upon myself severe criticism by certain members of the board. Why they should fit the shoe to themselves I can only guess. The minority in this case might have been any one or two members of the board. However, when the motion was put a great deal of criticism of the project was expressed and when the approval was called for three "Aye" votes responded and nothing was said on the "No" vote.

Our meeting is governed by Roberts Rules of Order and when any member remains silent on a vote he must be recorded as voting in the affirmative. However, this does not necessarily mean that those members who did not express an audible vote were in favor of adoption of the proposition under discussion.

WOMEN HURT IN TWO CAR CRASH

In a two car collision which occurred on the Junipero Serra boulevard and the No. 101 highway, early Sunday morning, two women passengers were injured. They were Mrs. A. Barry, 40, of 341 Paris street, San Francisco, and Miss H. Donohue, 82, manager of the St. Francis Home. Both were treated at the Alemany Emergency Hospital.

Mrs. Barry was later removed to her home. Miss Donohue, who sustained four fractured ribs and was suffering from shock, was also removed later to St. Joseph's Hospital.

The cars involved were driven by Thomas J. Barry of Paris street and H. A. Hess of 525 Ashbury street, San Francisco.

TRAFFIC DEATHS IN COUNTY FOUR BELOW YEAR AGO

San Mateo County had 78 traffic deaths in 1937 as compared with 80 deaths in 1936, according to figures reported by the state director of motor vehicles.

Total figures for the state showed Mono County with the lowest figure, a single traffic fatality, while the highest record of death was in Los Angeles County where 1001 persons were killed during the year.

While the accident death total for 1937 reached 3149 and exceeded 1936 record by seven, 32 of the state's 58 counties reduced their deaths.

In this connection the director said:

"The showing in 32 counties for 1937 spurs us on in our united safety campaign efforts in the hope that every county will show a reduction for 1938.

"Under the State Traffic Safety Commission, organized by Governor Merriam, leading civic safety groups are working with the state in a coordinated campaign to cut down the highway toll."

Hours Changed For Library During Construction Work

The Daly City library will be closed during the day, but will be open from 5 p. m. to 10 p. m., Monday to Friday inclusive, and Saturday from 1:30 to 5 p. m.

These hours will continue during the construction of the addition and will prevail until further notice.

WORK ON NEW ADDITION FOR LIBRARY BEGUN

Workmen Busy This Week On Start Of Construction Of Long Sought Improvement

Many citizens of Daly City were thrilled, Monday of this week, seeing evidences of progress on the construction of a new public library building. Workmen were on the job really doing things that indicated a big start in the right direction. We had dreamed of this improvement for such a long time that we despaired of ever realizing anything but bubbles and castles in the air.

No longer will our children be obliged to wait for the privilege to read and study, the front steps serving as a make shift foyer. Horse and buggy days are past, even though we may not have funds enough to buy a Packard or a Cadillac, we'll buy a less expensive one, but which nevertheless will take us where we want to go, until such time our treasury funds increase to more sizeable dimensions for the purchase of something larger and more elaborate.

The culmination of this worthy project is due to the untiring efforts of Councilman Sunderman, as chairman of the library committee, who was ably assisted and abetted in his laudable endeavors by Mayor Selmi and Councilman Twesten.

HOLDUPS FOILED WHEN TWO MEN ENTER TAVERN

Pair Of Would-Be Robbers Flee When Proprietor Shows Fight

Badly frightened when their intended victim reached for a gun, two masked bandits fled, early Tuesday of this week, after attempting to hold up a Daly City tavern without obtaining any loot.

The two men entered Kelly's Corner, Knowles and Mission streets, here, at midnight while Gene Duffy, one of the proprietors, was alone in the place. The two ordered beers.

Duffey said he momentarily turned his back and, when he again faced the pair, black handkerchiefs covered the lower parts of their faces.

Each held a hand in an overcoat pocket and gestured as though he had a gun.

One of the bandits, Duffy said, commanded:

"Hand over the cash, you——"

Duffy told Police Chief James Reardon that, instead of complying with the command, he reached under the counter for a revolver and the pair backed hastily out the front door. They fled west on Knowles street in an old car, Duffy said.

He described one of the bandits as about 40 years old, 5 feet 7 inches tall, weighing 155 pounds, and wearing a light coat and overcoat. The other was about 32 years old, 5 feet 10 inches, weighted 175 pounds, and wore a brown overcoat and light hat.

Police believe they may be the robbers who have staged a series of holdups in Daly City and in other parts of the county during the past two months.

BAYSHORE SEES CHAMPION DOGS RACE SATURDAY

Largest Crowd To Attend During This Meeting Expected For Closing Night

All roads will lead to Town & Country Kennel Club. Saturday night, March 19, where the O. P. Smith Memorial Race will feature closing night of the 1938 spring season of greyhound racing.

Record breaking greyhounds, including the famous Gold Dust Twins, Andrew's Pride and Mike Andrew, owned by P. J. Olmo of Colma, will participate in the closing night program.

The O. P. Smith Memorial is dedicated to the genious who invented the electrical lure for greyhound racing. The late O. P. Smith first used an electrical "rabbit" at Emeryville track in 1920, later taking the device to Tulsa, Oklahoma, where the first records were kept of greyhound racing.

On Saturday night the Memorial Race will be over the tortuous International Course, which is 721 yards. The greyhounds start on the backstretch and offer a thrilling spectacle as they complete two circuits of the racing strip. The lead changes frequently and there is a thrill a second.

On Friday night the longest race in the history of Pacific Coast racing will take place at Bayshore track. It will be a one half mile run, featuring experienced routers who are being specially groomed for this unusual distance. The race lasts almost a full minute, with the greyhounds covering 51 feet per second, an unparalled feat of speed and endurance.

Tomorrow evening will witness the closing races at the Bayshore City greyhound race course. It is expected the largest crowd yet to attend at this meeting will be present to see the sports.

The contests at this session have been some of the best ever witnessed at this popular course and large and enthusiastic crowds have enjoyed the sport nightly.

FLOWER BOOTH OF GIRL SCOUTS TO BE COLORFUL

Members Of Troop 2 Get Many Pointers At Daly City Recreational Project Exhibit

Through the kindness of a friend who furnished the means for the purchase of assorted colors of paint, a group of Girl Scouts from Troop 2 will now be able to decorate the flower pots, making their Plant Booth at the "Festival of Youth" more attractive. For many weeks, a group of about ten girls have been busily planting seeds, making slips and collecting bulbs and seedlings from their friends. By working on this project the girls have become acquainted with the names of various plants and have acquired knowledge of plant culture which is an important part of the Girl Scout nature study program.

It was a very interested and absorbed group of Girl Scouts and Brownies who attended the Daly City Recreation Exhibit, Tuesday afternoon of this week. In view of the fact that assistance will be applied for to the Daly City Recreation Project by Troop 2, it was of great interest to the leaders of the Girl Scouts and the Brownies to find out what the girls would be most interested in doing in the near future. With the help of the Daly City Recreational directors there will be many classes of handwork started for the Scouts soon.

NOTES ON OUR ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

High Eighth Grade Visit Local Bank

The unit on banking which has been in progress in the high eigth grade at the Woodrow Wilson Elementary school was reviewed and culminated by a visit to the Daly City Branch of the Bank of America. Through the courtesy and co-operation of Mr. Newman and Mr. Erickson the visit was arranged. Mr. Erickson escorted the group through the various departments of the bank, explaining in detail every step in the opening of either a commercial or savings account.

The group was particularly interested to learn the details involved in the burglar alarm system. Safe deposit vaults and their use was explained to the children. The notes department was of particular interest, as the visitors heard the familiar terms which had been used in their own classroom used in a life situation. Such terms as security, collateral, discount, net proceeds, etc. now hold a definite significance.

The banking system of bookkeeping in its entirety was shown to the class as well as the various bank forms. Sample forms were given to the class, so that they may go back to their classrooms to actually make out deposit slips, withdrawal forms, and checks. Other bank forms such as promissory notes, deeds of trust, signature cards, etc, are to be organized by the class for a chart.

The group learned that there were approximately 12,000 commercial and savings accounts carried on the bank records with an average balance of two million dollars. Mr. Erickson has done much to vitalize and impress the most important commercial arithmetical processes and procedures necessary for an intelligent lay man to know in caring for his own personal account.

Americanism Essays Entered In Contest

One hundred and twenty essays have been turned in to Superintendent Crane's office for participation in the contest sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary in their efforts to instill "Appreciation of America," which is the keynote of the year, into the minds and hearts of students. With this thought in mind the following essay topics were used: Fifth and sixth grades, "The Reason I Am Proud To Be An American;" seventh and eighth grades, "How I Can Help Perpetuate Americanism." These Americanism essays will be judged on the following basis: 40 per cent patriotism, 40 per cent originality and 20 per cent neatness, punctuation and spelling. A district prize of $3 will be given for the best essay in the fifth and sixth grade group, whereas a $3 prize will be awarded for the best essay in the seventh and eighth grade group and a prize of $2 for the second best in this group will also be awarded. A committee composed of members of Daly City Auxiliary No. 410 will meet, and act as judges for conducting the first elimination contest to send the four best essays to the District Americanism Chairman by April 1. A committee will then conduct the second elimination contest and send the two best essays for each district to the Department Americanism Chairman by April 15. Three schools in the district have participated in this contest: Crocker, Woodrow Wilson Elementary, and Jefferson by having sent in to the district unit ten essays each for grades five, six, seven and eight.

PUNISHMENT BY PROXY FOR FINE

Recently Judge Mitchell of Santa Ana, Calif., sentenced a motorist to pay $150 for a traffic law violation. The accused admitted the violation, but pleaded that he was busy while a friend of his, who owed him some money, was not.

"Let my friend work out my fine," pleaded the motorist.

The judge agreed. The friend went to work in the city park.

The judge believes in making the "punishment fit the crime."

After a busy day, Mrs. Roosevelt addressed a huge throng in the Civic Auditorium on "Peace." Representatives of various branches of the service and diplomatic corps attended. While on the Fair site, Mrs. Roosevelt took the controls of a tractor operating a "bulldozer" to turn over the ground.

WASHINGTON NEWS

FROM OUR CONGRESSMAN
JOHN J. McGRATH

Reorganization—In the Senate, debate centered on the President's reorganization bill. Many opposed the bill as they felt it gave the President power to shift and change the structure of federal bureaus and agencies and also the fact that it would put an end to bipartisan Civil Service Commission, and interfere with the present Comptroller General's Office.

Federal Licensing Of Corporations—The Senate Committee on Judiciary held hearings on the Borah-O'Mahoney bill for federal licensing of corporations. The bill was supported by Senator Borah who charged that four corporations, whose names he omitted to state, set the price of food in this country.

Transcontinental Highway — The bill providing for an eight billion dollar transcontinental super highway project, which was introduced by Senator Bulkley, has little chance of passage this session as it has been transferred from the Committee on Banking and Currency to the Committee on Postoffices and Post-roads. Senator McKellar, chairman of this committee, would rather have a commission study the subject before turning it over for action of Congress.

Tax Bill—The tax program, after many months of hearings and study, has been released from the House Ways and Means Committee. The program deals with modification of the present tax structure. The aims of the bill are to remove inequities, equalize tax burden and stimulate business activities.

Navy Bill—By a 20 to 3 vote, the House Naval Affairs Committee has reported a bill embodying the President's naval demands. The bill calls for a ship and plane building program to cost, exclusive of extensive personnel expansion handled in separate legislation, the sum of $1,121,546,000. It was originally estimated the cost of the program would be $800,000,000, but now it looks as though the program will be at least 40 per cent greater.

Solicitor General — Robert H. Jackson has been approved as Solicitor General of the United States by the Senate Committee on Judiciary, by a vote of 10 to 2. The confirmation of the Senate has been given.

Fine Arts Bureau — The Senate Committee on Education and Labor was informed by Gutzon Borglum and Walter Damrosch that they opposed the bill creating a Federal Bureau of Fine Arts, as it would be more of a relief than an art measure. Many well known people have endorsed the bill and are heartily in favor of such a program. Among those expressing favorable opinion were Mary Pickford, Burgess Meredith, Jane Cowl and Lillian Gish.

Bank Holding Companies — The Senate and House Committees on Banking and Currency have before them companion bills regulating bank holding companies. The bills are sponsored by Senator Glass of Virginia and Representative Steagall of Alabama. Enactment at this session is predicted by administration leaders. At the same time, the Senate Banking and Currency Committee has favorably reported a bill regulating "over the counter" operations of brokers, with federal, state and municipal securities exempt from said regulation.

Trade Puzzles—The people of the United States use less foreign goods than foreigners use American goods. Exports from this country in January were $119,000,000 larger than imports, and foreigners are finding it difficult to keep carrying on trade with this country at that rate. The result is that these countries are shifting their trade to those nations that use more of their goods. If this should happen, sales of American products abroad may suffer a sharp contraction.

Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor, in a recent talk, said: "Of all the labor problems in the United States today, the problem of security is of fundamental and primary importance. In that respect, all wage earners have similar aspirations. The desire for security is shared by the most learned and skillful workers with the most untrained and poorly paid. It cannot be accomplished 100 per cent, of course. No human desire can be completely realized, but much can be done to approach that aspiration. We can set up as a socially desirable standard the idea that a man over 40 shall continue to work in the trade or profession in which he is accustomed to working. In some industries there is an over abundance of youth. They have the courage and energy of youth in their dealings with industry and none of the wisdom and practical common sense of those older men with families to support, homes to keep up and children to send to school."

* * *

Home Construction Up—An indication of a steady upturn in home financing and construction activity throughout the country since the beginning of the year, especially since the signing of the National Housing Act February 3, is shown by the records of the Federal Housing Administration. Business transacted during the week ending February 26 exceeded that of the coresponding week of last year. Week by week tabulation of home mortgages selected for appraisal during the past three years has proved to be a consistently sensitive indext of residential financing and building activity.

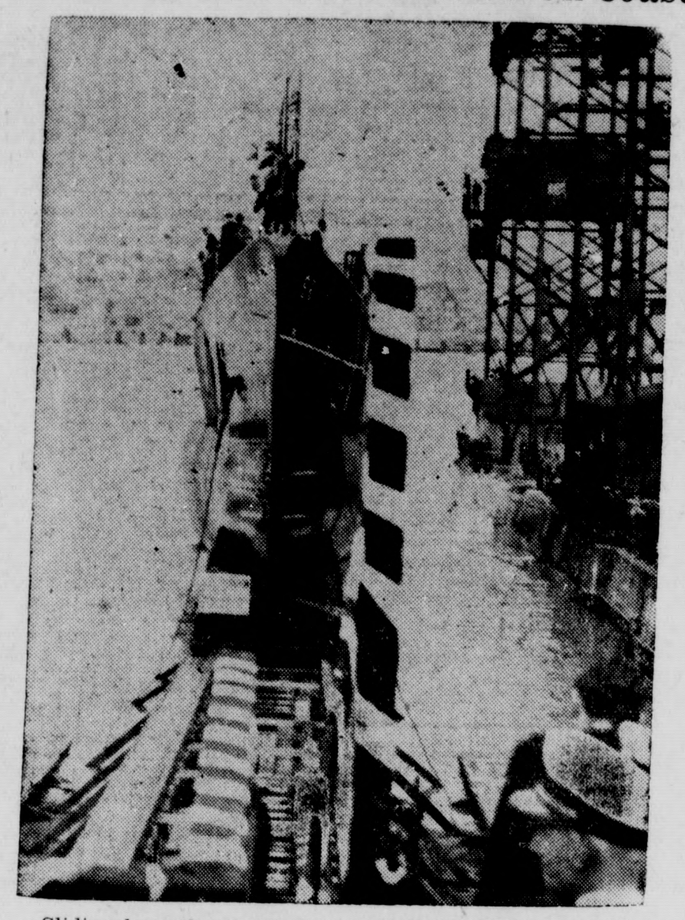
Newest Submarine Launched On Coast



Sliding down the ways is the newest of Uncle Sam's submarine fleet, the U. S. S. Sturgeon, built and launched under virtual wartime precautions at Mare Island, Cal., Navy Yard. Special guards patorolled the yard and spectators were not allowed to venture too near the vessel. Mrs. Charles S. Freeman, wife of Rear Admiral Freeman, commander of the submarine force, christened the Sturgeon with champagne. The 1466 ton undersea craft will be commissioned at Mare Island. LENTEN DISHES

"Work is love made visible. And if you cannot work with love but only with distaste, it is better that you should leave your work and sit at the gate of the temple and take alms of those who work with joy. For if you bake bread with indifference, you bake a bitter bread that feeds but half man's hunger." By Kahlil Gibran

FLOUR

Flours most commonly used are classified under three headings: Bread Flour, Cake Flour, All-Purpose Flour.

Bread flour is made from hard or spring wheat. It is a strong flour containing more gluten and less starch than cake flour and should not be used in cake making.

Cake flour is made from soft or winter wheat and contains a moderate amount of gluten and a high percentage of starch. It should not be used for bread making. The difference between bread and cake flours can easily be determined by taking a handful of each and sqeezing them tightly. Cake flour will cake in the hand and have a velvety texture; bread flour will act like a powder and be gritty.

All-purpose flour consists of a correct blending of bread and cake flour and can be used in various ways; however, it will not make the same quality of bread obtained by using bread flour. All-purpose flour is good for quick breads and can be used in making cakes; but to obtain a perfect texture in cakes, we recommend that a reliable cake flour be used.

PLAIN BREAD

1 cup lukewarm water
1 cup lukewarm milk
2 teaspoons salt
1 tablespoon sugar
1 tablespoon lard or butter
½ cake compressed yeast (dissolved in ¼ cup lukewarm water)
Flour

Place the water, milk, salt, sugar and fat into a bowl; add the dissolved yeast and then the flour gradually. When dough is stiff enough to handle, turn the dough on a floured board and knead until soft and elastic (about 10 minutes). Place in buttered bowl, cover, and let it rise in a warm place until double its bulk. Then place dough on floured board and knead about 5 minutes and divide into loaves; after each kneading the dough should be buttered to keep the surface from drying. Place loaves in buttered pans in which they are to be baked; cover and let rise till double in bulk; then bake. When bread is removed from oven it should be removed from pans and cooled on wire rack. The top of the crust is improved if buttered when first removed from oven.

One cup of liquid makes one loaf of bread. An ordniary loaf of bread requires 1 hour to bake. (350 degrees Fahrenheit.)

GERMAN COFFEE CAKE
(From Mrs. V. Hauptli)

1 cup scalded milk
1-3 cup shortening
¾ cake of yeast
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1-3 cup sugar
1-3 teaspoon salt

Enough flour to mix

Pour scalded milk over sugar, shortening and salt. When lukewarm add yeast, which has been dissolved in lukewarm water, eggs and enough flour to make a stiff batter. Cover and let rise. Beat well and spread in a greased tin. Let rise again. Cover with melted butter and chopped almonds, or peanuts, sugar, cinnamon and a little flour mixed.

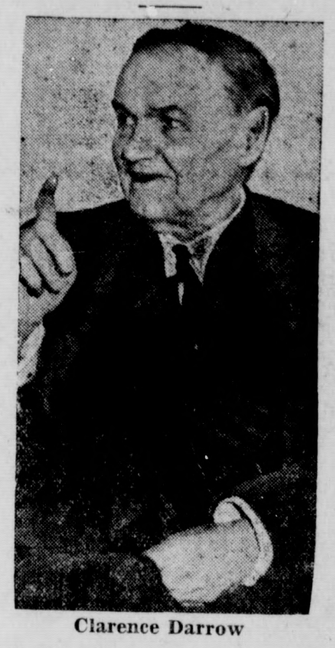
CLARENCE DARROW DIES IN CHICAGO



Clarence Darrow

Clarence Darrow, 80, the nation's most famous "attorney for the defense," who died from a heart attack at his home in Chicago after a long illness. Darrow began his career in Chicago in 1887, where, from a soap box orator, he rose to become a political spellbinder. The Loeb-Leopold murder trial was one of the most celebrated Darrow ever fought. He also won worldwide legal distinction in his famous defense of John T. Scopes, in the Tennessee "Monkey" trial; in the famous Honolulu Massie case; in the Los Angeles Times bombing case, and, earlier in his career, as defender of Eugene V. Debs, one time Socialist candidate for President of the United States.

Another Expèriment Tried In Greenbelt—This Time It's Religious Tolerance

If Someone Should Pass You A Counterfeit Bill Tomorrow — Would You Know It?

(By Hart Goodrich)

One of the favorite questions of curbstone radio interviewers is, "What is the picture on the $5 bill?" It would be worth your while to know the answer to this question and questions concerning famous faces on all of our currency, the Secret Service Bureau advises.

The first big stumbling block ever placed in the way of the counterfeiter was when, in 1928, the Treasury Department decided to use the same portraits on notes of the same denomination. Previously it happened that five or six Presidents had their pictures on notes of the same denomination, making it easier for counterfeiters to fool their victims.

There are eleven denominations, and each one carries a standard identifying portrait. Memorize the following and save yourself possible loss.

Denominations and portraits are as follows:

$1—George Washington.
$2—Thomas Jefferson.
$5—Abraham Lincoln.
$10—Alexander Hamilton.
$20—Andrew Jackson.
$50—Ulysses S. Grant.
$100—Benjamin Franklin.
$500—McKinley.
$1000—Cleveland.
$5000—Madison.
$10,000—Samuel Chase.

The commonest type of counterfeiting is that done by changing the amount in the corner of the note to read a higher denomination. A short time ago a Washington woman was arrested for a rank amateur counterfeiting job. With no experience whatever, she succeeded in passing off a $1 bill for a ten, having raised the numeral herself—and in a very crude way.

A daily newspaper some time ago published a reproduction of a new counterfeit $20 bill to illustrate a news item, warning its readers against the bogus bills. The very next day Secret Service men pounced on a man for passing one of these newspaper illustrations and getting away with it. He had cut out the pictures, pasted face and back together, and had succeeded in negotiating an obvious poor reproduction of a counterfeit note. Incidentally, reproduction of United States currency in any manner is illegal. So the newspaper itself was liable for action.

Secret Service agents develop a keen sense of admiration for steel-engraved subjects. Veterans in the service almost instantly can detect the work of a new counterfeiter. They can tell at first glance the handiwork of an ex-counterfeiter returned to his former industry.

Few people know that our currency notes are printed from steel plates; that these steel plates originally are engraved by hand and that the men who perform this work are the finest engravers in the United States. The composite design represents a challenge to the finest engraving exhibited in any art gallery.

Genuine notes are printed on high grade distinctive paper impregnated with tiny red and blue silk fiber. These threads are perhaps difficult to discern at first glance. They are placed in the paper to increase its tensile strength and durability, and not as a protective feature, as some people imagine. The lettering on your engraved personal or business card shows an upraised surface. Each note issued by the government is similarly made.

Many of us confuse the Secret Service with the Department of Justice operatives or "G" men. The Secret Service Bureau is a part of the Treasury Department, and has no jurisdiction over Department of Justice operatives, or vice versa. A plan for combining these two agencies was submitted recently.

The Golden Text will be: "Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God Jacob (Ps. 114: 7). Other Bible citations will include: "Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder; blue and purple is their clothing: they are all the work of cunning men. But the Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king: . . ." (Jer. 10: 9, 10 to :).

The Lesson-Sermon will also include the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is the infinite, and infinity never began, will never end, and includes nothing uhlike God. Whence then is soulless matter?" (p. 249).

Second Suicide Try In Two Months

George Hambleton of San Diego avenue made his second try at suicide in two months, Wednesday of this week, in the Daly City Beauty Parlor, operated by Mrs. A. Milo, where he had gone to do the janitor work.

On opening her shop that morning Mrs. Milo found a pool of blood near one of the chairs and the gas turned on.

The police were notified and Chief Reardon and Officer Hilton responded. They found a line of blood trailing the place, but no one was on the premises. They went to the home of Hambleton and found it locked. They entered through a window and found the would-be suicide unconscious with his left wrist badly cut and a slight cut in his throat.

The wounded man was removed to the Villa Sanitarium, where he is in a serious condition.

A jury locked up for the night in Derby, Eng., was rebuked by the court the next day for having sung "We Won't Go Home Until Morning" several times.

SUPERVISORS TO DECIDE TODAY ABOUT ELECTION

Said Executive E. A. Rolison, whose appointive term of office ends with the special election: "I don't see how the board can do anything else but to call an election. The arguments that an election so near the August election is a waste of money is a good argument, but it is not a legal argument."

Most of those who stated any opinion on the subject expressed the same views.

Supervisor Poole said it was probable that the board would call the election at the adjourned meeting today.

Deputy Attorney General Harrison, explaining the ruling, said:

"We rendered an opinion in May of last year before the emendments were voted on.

"Our view was that it would then be necessary to hold an election to put the provisions of the amendments into operation, and, thereafter, the offices would be filled at the regular election:"

District Attorney Ferrell declined to comment until today's special meeting of the board, but it appears probable that he will advise the supervisors at that time that the election must be held.

Cornoer William F. Crosby of Burlingame said he would become a candidate for election, and will begin immediately to circulate his nomination petition.

Crosby said it was likely that workers would be put in the field to obtain signatures for as many as three candidates at a time in order to facilitate the immense task.

Others who will have to obtain more than 2000 signatures are County Executive Rolison, Engineer U. S. Marshall, Recorder T. Clark Rice, Treasurer Al Sagehorn and Tax Collector Ambrose McSweeney. All have stated they will seek election.

No voter may sign the petition of more than one candidate for the same office. If, for example, there are three candidates for executive, close to 7000 names would have to be obtained for them to qualify. The work of verification of signatures will take a corps of registration deputies in the county clerk's office.

The supervisors must act on the election date before March 29. They must set the date "not sooner than 20 days, nor later than 60 days" after the 29th. The deadline would be May 27.

One of the legal complexities of the situation is the provision of section 1188 requiring candidates to file their nomination petitions not later than 35 days before the election. This would require the board to give the candidates ample time to file their papers, otherwise the county would have an election without any candidates.

CLEVER COMEDY NEW ATTRACTION FOR FTP SHOW

"Me Third" Wins Plaudits Galore From Eastern Dramatic Critics

Following the closing at the Alcazar of "The Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse," next Sunday night, March 20, the Federal Theater Project opens Monday night with what is said to be one of the cleverest comedies produced in New York during the past year, Mary Coyle Chase's "Me Third."

"The Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse," the English mystery play, was held an extra week to capacity business and established a new record for FTP plays in San Francisco.

"Me Third" is the story of a politician of the stuffed shirt variety and his campaign for the county attorneyship, aided and abetted by the women members of his family and the party leaders, who can not otherwise help themselves. The play was first produced in Denver by the Federal Theater and its success was such that it was purchased and produced by Brock Pemberton in New York. In the cast are Grace Cooper, Geraldine Allan, Ruth Saville, Edna Elsmere, Richard Allen, Daniel Pennell, Rupert Drum, Maurice Hugo, Dorothy White and the project's newest and youngest actor, Kenneth Rossi. It is scheduled for a two weeks run.

The American Legion of California plans to extend the fullest co-operation possible through its various posts to the successful observance of Public Schools Week, beginning April 25, according to a statement made public by Joseph S. Long, state commander of the Legion.

"As citizens, we are concerned with the opportunities offered to all children by the public schools of this country. As patriots, we know that the future of America lies in the true appreciation of its institutions gained through the field of education.

"In little knowledge there is danger, but in greater knowledge is the hope for a greater America."

Paper flowers so natural that visitors were seen to smell the blossoms in an attempt to enjoy the fragrance aroused the admiration of the visitors.

Especially prominent were a quilt made and displayed by Mrs. Jaymot, showing the state flowers, for which she was awarded a prize at the California State Fair; a basket quilt, displayed by the Catholic Daughters, and a dahlia pattern quilt, loaned for the occasion by Mrs. Leona Smith.

All types of handicraft were included in this display and adult, high school and boys and girls groups will soon be started for handicraft, needlecraft and varied hobby craft activities.

The personnel of the Daly City Recreation Project wish to take this opportunity to extent their heartiest appreciation of the interest displayed by the many citizens who attended and enjoyed this initial public activity of the season.

"True Confession" Is Comedy Drama Of Lie Vs. Truth

In the film, Miss Lombard and MacMurray play the parts of a struggling young lawyer and his wife, constantly at swords ends because of the conflict between Miss Lombard's inborn habit of lying and MacMurray's love for truth.

Implicated by circumstantial evidence, Miss Lombard finds herself accused of a murder, of which she is entirely innocent. MacMurray does not believe her story, and forces her to "confess" that she killed in self defense. On this plea, he gets Miss Lombard an acquittal.

Barrymore steps into the scene, in the role of an eccentric derelict whose brother in law actually committed the murder, and who tries to blackmail Miss Lombard by threatening that she lied to him in her "confession" unless she buys him off.

The film winds up with the most hilarious combination of comedy elements to reach the screen in a long, long while, with Miss Lombard finally realizing that under no conditions is she ever to lie to her husband again.
